LiNC is here! We are thrilled to officially launch an exciting partnership with four other Niagara library systems – Fort Erie Public Library, Niagara College Library, Niagara-on-the-Lake Public Library and Pelham Public Library. We're calling ourselves LiNC – the Libraries in Niagara Cooperative.

All Lincoln Public Library (LPL) cardholders are automatically LiNC cardholders. This means that you can borrow directly from any LiNC library. You can also place holds on their materials and have them sent to the LPL branch nearest you. Items can be returned to LPL; we'll make sure they get back to the library that owns them.

To see if the item you want is at a LiNC library, go to our home page and click on Explore/Search the Catalogue. The box to the left of the green "Search" button has a drop-down menu. When you select the top option, Libraries in Niagara Cooperative, you are searching everything at all five library systems.

Ask any staff member for more information, pick up a LiNC FAQ flyer, or check our website under Borrowing.

Enjoy both the Outdoors and Reading with a StoryWalk®!

A StoryWalk® is an opportunity for kids to experience reading a book while walking through an outdoor area such as a park, trail, or neighbourhood. StoryWalks® promote literacy and outdoor physical activity, plus they encourage parent and community involvement.

Enjoy the Canadian book Grumpy Bird by Jeremy Tankard at various Lincoln locations this July – ask for a flyer or check our website.

Fifteen Years and Counting... by Wendy Baarda

Can it really be 15 years ago that I started working at Lincoln Public Library? When I think back to all the changes we've been through together and all the different people I have worked with, I'm actually surprised that I could fit it all into 15 years!

I began my library career on July 2, 2002 after working for Rannie Publications in Beamsville for 13 years. As a Grimsby girl, born and raised, Beamsville wasn't really on my radar. We had a natural rivalry living so close together, but after returning to high school in 1988 to get my diploma as an adult student, I not only graduated, but attained my Administrative Assistant Certificate and began my newspaper career in the fall of 1989. At first I worked as a receptionist in the financial department, then was in the newspaper division. I worked the switchboard, took classified ads, wrote a small column and even covered the Grimsby Peach Kings Hockey team for a year!

I met many great co-workers and customers and came to love the town of Beamsville. Changes in the newspaper business were inevitable and I began to look further afield for something I would enjoy. I started taking courses online to earn a Library Technician's Diploma. Enter Margaret Andrewes, who told a mutual friend, Jan Moore, of an available maternity leave position at the library. I was fortunate enough to secure the temporary job, and couldn't have had a nicer, sweeter person to cover for than Nancy McLennan. We worked together for a few weeks, and she was friendly, efficient, and, best of all, she made me laugh. That was something I needed as a newly single person starting out on her own. I was disappointed when she didn't return to the library, even though it paved the way for me to continue and eventually become fulltime.

With the support of my family and co-workers I graduated from Mohawk College with my Library Technician's Diploma in 2012 and haven't looked back. I love my job, and that is a direct result of co-workers and patrons who make every day an interesting experience. I've made lifelong friends and appreciate the opportunity given to me by the library. I am blessed with two sons, who with their wives are loving and supportive, and I am grateful to have my brother and three sisters close by. My biggest blessing came in the birth of my grandson Cole, who will turn one in August and is the light of our lives. Thank you Lincoln Public Library for taking a chance on me, and making many of my dreams become a reality. I can't wait to see what my next chapter brings.
