FIRST NATIONS
PUBLIC LIBRARY WEEK
Revitalizing Indigenous Languages
Sept 29th - Oct 5th, 2019

A graphic for First Nations Public Library Week featuring a stylized plant with leaves and flowers. The leaves and flowers are filled with text in various Indigenous languages, including Ojibwe, Cree, and Anishinaabe. The background is black, and the text is in various colors like red, yellow, and white.

Check out our Indigenous Collection displays at both branches, including new arrivals!

Storybook
Pumpkin Patch

A photograph of two orange pumpkins with green stems and leaves, set against a light blue background.

Help us decorate your library for Halloween!

Take home a free pumpkin, decorate it as a character from your family's favourite book, then bring it back to display at the library during the month of October!

Please — no carving. Use markers, acrylic paint, accessories and, of course, lots of imagination!

Many thanks to Greenlane Farms in Vineland for generously donating the pumpkins.

ONTARIO PUBLIC LIBRARY WEEK

OCTOBER 20 - 26, 2019

A Visit Will Get You Thinking.

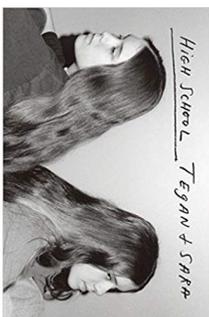

#OPLW
OPLW.CA

A colorful illustration for Ontario Public Library Week. It features a large blue silhouette of a head with a tree-like structure inside, representing a library. The tree has leaves that are books. A person is sitting on a stack of books, reading. There are various icons around, including a play button, a lightbulb, a gear, a paper airplane, and a red apple. The background is blue with white clouds.

JOIN US for Ontario Public Library Week events for all ages — an Open House with hot dogs and pop, a Genealogy evening, another fabulous Escape Room, and lots of make-n-take crafts for all ages. Plus, our annual OPLW Contest! Details in our Fall 2019 Programs brochure, or check our website and bulletin boards.

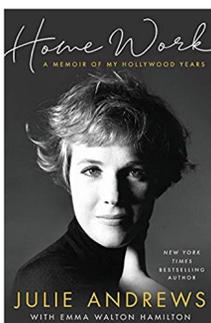

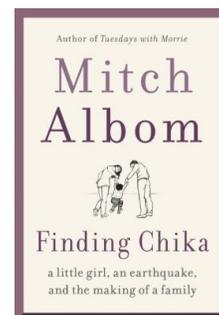

Coming Soon!

It seems that every best-selling author of non-fiction has a book coming out this Fall! Place your holds now for these sure-to-be-popular titles. And as always, let us know if there is a title you want us to purchase.

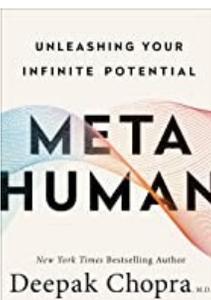

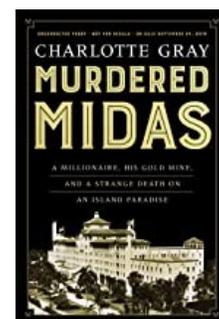

Musicians Tegan and Sara Quin have penned a nostalgic memoir titled High School, detailing their first loves and first songs in a compelling look back at their origin story.

Finding Chika: A Little Girl, an Earthquake, and the Making of a Family. Mitch Albom, author of Tuesdays with Morrie, returns to nonfiction for the first time in more than a decade in this poignant memoir that celebrates Chika, a young Haitian orphan whose short life would forever change his heart.

Julie Andrews (the singer/actor, not the library's CEO!) has written about the highs and lows of her years in the film industry in Home Work: A Memoir of My Hollywood Years.

A gold mine. A millionaire. An island paradise. An unsolved murder. A missing fortune. Murdered Midas is the story of the infamous Sir Harry Oakes as only Charlotte Gray can tell it.

Deepak Chopra returns with Metahuman: Unleashing your Infinite Potential in which the author asks if it is possible to venture beyond daily living and experience heightened states of awareness.

The Pioneer Woman Cooks: the New Frontier by Ree Drummond is sure to have some fabulous new recipes. I'm looking forward to making her Mean Green Mac and Cheese!

A few more things...

- * Please note we'll be closed Sunday October 13 and Monday October 14 for Thanksgiving.
- * The date of the next Lincoln Public Library Board meeting has been changed to Thursday October 17, 7 pm at the Moses F. Rittenhouse Branch. The public is welcome to attend.
- * For those using our Vineland location, we realize that getting to the library could be a challenge on the Thanksgiving weekend. So we arranged it so no items checked out in Vineland are due on the Saturday. Now you can relax and return items the following Tuesday.
- * We look forward to welcoming MPP Sam Oosterhoff to our Ontario Public Library Week Escape Room program on Wednesday October 23, beginning at 5:15 pm.
- * We are embarking on an exciting digitization project of our microfilm copies of local newspapers. This means that there will be periods when not all papers are available to view in Vineland. Please call us to check that the paper you are looking for is available.
- * A heads up that both branches will be closed Friday November 8 for a Staff Development Day.
- * Our Fall 2019 Programs brochure lists lots of great programs for all ages!
