

Your Library at Lincoln's inaugural Homecoming Festival!

On Saturday September 30, your Library is presenting five events as part of the Festival's Community Shapers Zone at the Fleming Centre:

Prudhomme's Garden Centre Complex Display

Discover the history of Prudhomme's through documents and photos from our Local History collection. On the second floor of the Centre from 10 am to 5 pm.

Book Launch

We are pleased to be the site for the launch of Prudhomme's: Creating a Niagara Legend, a Fraser Earle project with text by David Stouck. Check our website for the time and location.

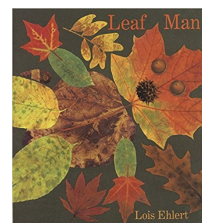

Human Library

You can literally check out a notable community member from our first Human Library! Spend time talking with some fascinating Lincoln residents, including artists, historians and more. Contact the Fleming Branch at 905.563.7014 to reserve a half-hour spot between 10 am and 5 pm. A list of the "human books" is available on our website and at both LPL locations.

StoryWalk®

Enjoy a StoryWalk® featuring Leaf Man by Lois Ehlert. Experience reading a book while walking in the landscaped area outside the Fleming Branch. Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm and Sunday October 1 from 1 to 5 pm. Plus, head to the library for a Leaf Man craft for kids of all ages!

Wall of Honour

We'll be setting up a display with names of notable citizens past and present. Check it out between 10 am and 5 pm.
